REAL ESTATE OPPORTUNITIES!

Some people who want to make a real estate change would just as lief trade as to sell, if they can just find what they want and can make satisfactory terms. I have all sorts of property, variously located through this section, which the owners are willing to shift for something else, and I have some especially good trade opportunities over across the river in New Hampshire. Among these latter is a substantial and profitable business block in the village of West Stewartstown to be traded for a farm over this way and a fine little 18 acre farm near Lancaster village, on state road, which can be had in exchange for a location hereabouts near a school. Think these over. Grocery and general store business in little village near St. Johnsbury to be exchanged for a farm on good road hereabouts. Other good openings in this section to trade village property for farms and vice versa. All sorts of business plants ready to be traded. New farm bargains coming at every day. List your farm now for a good fall sale!
